AMUSEMENT NOTES

"Blue Grass," which will be the attraction at the Academy of Music this evening, is a melodramatic comedy, having for its scenes and personages localities and characters of that famous section of Kentucky.

The entertainment Wednesday evening at the Academy will be a farce comedy entitled "Oat What a Night."

The three acts spin around the midnight marriage of Hovey and Lang to Judge Pottger's niece and the interference of Celeste Ovarson, an actress who is in love with Howard.

LACKAWANNA TOWNSHIP OFFICERS. Complications Locked for From the Auditors When Sworn In.

The officers elected recently in Lackawanna township will assume their duties today. The meeting will open at 7 o'clock this evening when the board of auditors will swear in the officers.

There is likely to be a battle in the proceedings as three auditors were placed on the ticket by the local Democracy, Michael G. Costick, Patrick Foley and Edward Morrissey.

The last year's board of auditors consisted of three Republicans—Thomas B. Lovring, Benjamin Phillips and William Williams.

Team from Company C Easily Defeats One from Company B. The basket ball teams of Companies B and C of the Third Regiment played a loose and rather spirited game at the armory on Saturday night.

FUNERAL OF THOMAS J. DAVIES

A Large Number of Sorrowing Friends Attend the Funeral of a Popular Young Man—Death of Sarah Morgan, Wife of Isaac Morgan—Wm. Sweeney's Foot Crushed.

The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 125 South Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.

The auditorium of the First Welsh Congregational church was crowded to its utmost capacity yesterday afternoon at the funeral of Thomas J. Davies, a popular young man, who died on Thursday last at his home on Fifteenth street.

where brief services were conducted by Rev. David Jones. The cortege then moved to the First Welsh Congregational church. After a Scripture reading by Rev. D. P. Jones, of the Tabernacle Congregational church, Rev. David Jones preached an enthusiastic sermon on the estimable qualities of Mr. Davies.

The attending ladies were Estepha lodge, No. 21, Loyal Knights of America, numbering 200, marshaled by Captain John Lewis, who was assisted by William Jones; Selurian lodge, No. 763, Independent Order of Old Fellows, marshaled by Obediah Jenkins, and Bellevue Mine Accidental fund, marshaled by Robert Owens.

The floral designs were very beautiful, among them being a pillow with a dove inscribed, "Dear Brother," and a sheaf of wheat. Enterprise lodge presented a crescent and star, the emblem of the order. Chaplain Obediah Jenkins and Isaac Morgan, representing the Loyal Order of Old Fellows and Enterprise lodge, read the ritual at the grave. The pall bearers were, of Enterprise lodge, David R. Jones and David Johnson; of Selurian lodge, William Anthony and Noah Davis; of the Bellevue fund, Gomer Reese and Thomas R. Luttis.

Died at Noon. At noon yesterday Mrs. Sarah Morgan, wife of Isaac Morgan, of 139 North Bromley avenue, died at her home after a short illness of pneumonia.

About a week ago Mrs. Morgan was taken ill, but her condition was not considered critical until a day or two ago. Mrs. Morgan was born in Monmouthshire, South Wales, in 1822, and was 72 years of age. In 1852 she came to this country with her first husband, David Dyfield, now deceased. She resided for a year at Johnstown, after which she came to this side where she had since resided.

Mrs. Morgan was an estimable woman and her genial disposition won the hearts of all her acquaintances. She is one of the oldest members of the First Welsh Baptist church. She is survived by her husband and adopted daughter, Mrs. Evan J. Davis. Mrs. Morgan was also the mother of the deceased wife of Daniel E. Davis, of Jackson street. The funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon. Interment will be made in the Washburn Street cemetery.

David Jenkins Buried. The funeral of David Jenkins, of Keyser avenue, occurred Saturday afternoon and was largely attended.

The services were conducted by Edward Howell, of North Lincoln avenue, at the Keyser Avenue Baptist mission school house. The funeral procession was a long one and was headed by Panocha tribe, No. 141, Improved Order of Red Men. Then came the Capouse Miners' Accidental fund in large numbers, followed by Court Albion, No. 7096, Ancient Order of Foresters of America. The pall bearers were members of the different organizations and consisted of John Weizel, Henry Sherman, George Meyer, William Wagner, John Heil and Thomas Jones. The ceremony was closed at the grave by the reading of the ritual of the Red Men by Edward Howell and that of the Foresters by William York.

Laid at Rest. The funeral of John T. Phillips, of Washburn street, was held at the Washburn Street cemetery yesterday afternoon. The service was conducted by Rev. D. Jones, of the First Congregational church, at the house at 239 o'clock. The cortege was attended by the Eagle lodge, No. 107, American Protestant association and the Continental Miners' Accidental fund. The pall bearers were from the Eagle lodge, Thomas D. Edwards, Reese Williams, John A. Dugger, Dawson Weatherhog and James Reider; from the Continental fund, Charles Conn, Reese Hopkins, David Parry, John Thomas, Martin Tigne and Frank Francis. Interment was made in the Washburn Street cemetery.

Had His Foot Crushed. William Sweeney, of Twenty-first street, was injured in the Continental mine while at work Saturday afternoon. Sweeney was drilling a hole and as he had the drill poised for a blow piece of top coal fell, striking the instrument, which buried itself in his foot. The injured man was removed to his home, where Dr. Carroll was summoned.

Interesting News Notes. Thomas Sanebury, a former resident of this side, but now of Peckville, died at his home in that place Saturday evening, after an illness of only a few hours. Mr. Sanebury was well known on this side, where he resided for a number of years. He was 59 years of age and is survived by his widow and six children. The funeral will occur in Peckville tomorrow afternoon. The 2 p. m. Delaware and Hudson train will convey the remains to this city. Interment will be made in the Washburn street cemetery.

Rev. A. Ben Oziel, of Jerusalem, delivered an address before an appreciative audience in the Jackson Street Baptist church yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Hyde Park Literary and Debating society will select its officers this evening.

Joseph D. Lloyd, of North Main avenue, is a candidate for delegate for the First legislative district to the state convention to be held May 23, subject to the decision of the Republican caucus.

ANOTHER SUIT BY MR. BURKE. He Places His Damages at $30,000 This Time.

Patrick Burke will make another effort to recover damages from the Delaware and Hudson Canal company for injuries he sustained in the Dickson shaft at Green Ridge several years ago. Some time after the accident Mr. Burke brought a suit which was tried

The Father Whitty society held a special meeting yesterday and decided to hold a dramatic entertainment at St. Mary's hall on Easter Monday night. The talent for the occasion will be selected from among the members of the society. The entertainment will no doubt be a decidedly good one. Whenever the Whitty society undertakes to do anything it usually does it well.

The Crystal Literary and Dramatic club held a very successful rehearsal at Company H armory yesterday. The play rehearsed was the "Confederate Spy," which will be produced next Thursday night. The demand for tickets is so great that it is feared the seating capacity will be insufficient.

P. Gilligan, a former resident of Hyde Park, arrived here a few days ago from Butte City, Mont., where he dwelt for a number of years. He gives a graphic description of the condition of the silver mining industry in the western states, and says that the cloud of depression which hangs so menacingly over the staple industry of the west cannot be easily dispelled.

Major Mattes, of the Thirteenth regiment, inspected Company H at its armory Saturday night. He was accompanied by Colonel Coates, Regimental Adjutant Miller and Adjutant A. K. DeWesler, of the Second battalion. Major Mattes expressed himself in very complimentary terms on the military excellence of Captain Rockwell's command.

Albert Schultz, the popular clerk at Davir drug store, has resigned his position. Mr. Schultz has had an offer of a lucrative position from a Newark druggist.

The death of Mrs. J. W. Williams took place at her home in North Abington yesterday morning. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from the Hyde Park Simpson Methodist Episcopal church. Deceased was a former resident of Bellevue.

The leakage in the gas main on West Market street nearly set the store of Ruane & Clark on fire Saturday. For the past two months gas has been escaping in the vicinity of the store and apparently got into the cellar. O. S. Kelly, somebody standing near the store entrance lit a match and immediately the gas ignited. The flames got into the cellar and threatened for a few moments to destroy the building. As the volume of gas was burning out the flames began to diminish. An alarm of fire was sounded and some of the neighbors gathered near the store.

ONLY twenty-seven days. A GREAT OPPORTUNITY.

A World Renowned Encyclopedia Britannica, which we offer to our readers at the unheard of price of only 10 cents a day, is a unique and splendid work. It has no peer among encyclopedias. There is not one Bible for the Christians; one Torah for the Hebrews; one Koran for Mohammedans, and there is but one Encyclopedia Britannica for the people who speak and read the English language, and who turn to it as the one comprehensive, all inclusive and authoritative epitome of human knowledge in all its branches.

To possess this masterpiece work is to own a whole library and have access to information on every subject within the domain of human experience, study or inquiry. The extraordinary terms announced on another page upon which the great E. Cyclopedia Britannica will be supplied to our subscribers are only for a few days now.

Remember this fact. A few years ago the complete edition of the E. Cyclopedia Britannica cost nearly $200, thus preventing any but the wealthy from purchasing it. We are now able to offer a later, a better and more complete edition in twenty-five volumes, comprising a total of over 22,000 pages with 671 maps and plans, over 10,000 illustrations and 250,000 subjects.

We have confidence in it and we know our subscribers will be benefited by having this great work to consult. In proof of this we are willing to pay $1.00 for every five volumes, with all charges prepaid, and allow you to pay $1 per month. Can we do any more?

There is no further excuse for not owning this great reference library. Take advantage of the offer now. Do not delay. This greatest of libraries is now on exhibition at 437 Spruce street. Remember you have but a short time in which to decide.

ONLY twenty-seven days. BURGLAR DETECTED AT WORK.

Coolness and Nerve of Two Citizens Cause His Arrest. James Conway, 39 years of age, while burglarizing the market of Joseph Emery, at 103 South Seventh street early yesterday morning was detected and arrested by James McLaughlin, a citizen. Alderman Fuller committed him to jail in default of bail.

The apprehension of the crackman speaks for the coolness and nerve of Mr. McLaughlin and his brother. Mr. McLaughlin lives over the market and was awakened by suspicious noises about 3 o'clock in the morning. The sounds appeared to come from the store below. He quickly awakened his brother, and cautioning him to be silent the two descended to the street. Entering the building they came undiscovered upon the man, and each grasping an arm, told him he was a prisoner. The fellow was too surprised to attempt violence or escape, and without remonstrance accompanied his captors into the street.

Sergeant Edwards and Officer Dyer were met on Lackawanna avenue and the prisoner turned over to them. He had no defense to make in the police court.

Auction Sale of Groceries. A. R. Harris will sell at 1.30 today the remainder of groceries and fixtures at 245 Wyoming avenue.

ONLY twenty-seven days. Anheuser, 252 Spruce St. Louis Lohman's, 323 Spruce St. McBurn's new Turkish bath. Everything new, 566 Spruce street, opposite Court House.
